

Nominate Your Favorite Teacher in Madison's Online Teacher of the Year Contest!

Be sure to nominate your favorite teacher in Madison's 11th Annual Teacher of the Year Contest that officially begins March 1st, 2016. A total of $1000 will be awarded to the 2016 winners. The two instructors receiving the highest number of online votes will each receive a $500 cash award to be used toward a student advancement project in his or her school district.

Any student, parent, administrator, or area resident may nominate a teacher. Eligible teachers must be employed during the 2016-16 school year at an elementary, middle, or high school located in Madison's service area. Complete qualifications and guidelines are located on Madison's web site at www.gomadison.com. The deadline for submitting online nominations is March 31st. All qualifying nominations will be posted to Madison's web site where voting will be permitted from April 1st through April 29th, at 4:00 p.m. Winners will be announced online on or around May 2nd.

In addition to the $500 cash award, each teacher will receive a plaque and his or her homeroom class will receive a pizza party hosted by Madison Communications. Don't miss this opportunity to recognize outstanding leadership in the field of education!
